

TDHI HALAL
INTERNATIONAL CONSULTING FIRM
Shari'ah Advisory

We are the only company in the world not owned by Muslim private individuals or Islamic companies to operate in a certified and professional manner in Arab or Muslim countries.

Halal is not just for Muslims. It's a way of life. It means purity, cleanliness, safety and quality. Halal's attributes are now recognized by non-Muslim consumers around the world, giving Halal products and services an advantage over others.

TDHI Halal has combined the concept of halal and sustainable business development under one roof to provide you with quality consulting services from experts in Islamic finance, halal compliance, Islamic marketing, Muslim consumer behavior, Islamic brand image and sustainable business development.

At TDHI Halal, we follow strict standards for products and services that require Halal certification. We only accept Halal certification from internationally recognized and respected Halal certification authorities.

We operate, but not only, in the following sectors:

- Halal commercial consulting
- Halal Real estate consulting
- Halal marketing
- Halal trading
- Halal IT
- Halal startup
- Halal legal advice
- Halal islamic finance (haram)

Do you want to sell in Arab or Muslim countries? Do you want to develop an industrial project in Islamic or Muslim countries? Do you want to operate in banking, fintech or real estate in Islamic or Muslim countries?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, before starting to invest it would be better to write to us and consult us.
